

Scholarship Application

Our Mission: To preserve southern agriculture heritage through restoration and display of antique farm equipment at work, and to provide fun and educational family activities for North Carolinians of all ages.

Requirements for Scholarship Applicants

1. Scholarship recipient must be a United States Citizen.
2. Scholarship recipient must be a graduating senior of a High School, home school, or private school in Harnett County, NC, and have a 3.0 or higher GPA for the senior year. One recipient will be chosen from the applications received and will receive a $1000 scholarship.
3. Scholarship recipient must attend a North Carolina college or university (2 or 4 year) for the school year the scholarship is awarded.
4. Scholarship recipient must be enrolled full time in a degree program for agriculture or a related field.
5. Scholarship will be applied to a bookstore account at the college or university where the recipient is enrolled.
6. All applications and/or questions should be sent to S.A.F.E. Club Youth Development Committee, C/O Deborah Denton, 10501 Ramsey Street, Linden, NC 28356, or email, deb.denton@embarqmail.com . Phone inquiries call 910-980-0125.
7. Application deadline is April 1st of the applicant's senior year.
8. The Youth Development Committee's decision on recipient is final.

PLEASE NOTE: Although not required, we highly encourage applicants to volunteer at our spring Farm Show (3rd Saturday in March), by contacting Craig Senter at 919-215-3701.
